SEVILLE WATER WORKS CO LTD.

"Adul" Main Pumping Station

Transverse section of original engine-house showing one of the three compound reciprocating beam Pumping Engines, erected in the year 1864 and one half of the new installation comprising centrifugal pumps direct-coupled to electric motors, recently installed in substitution of the old plant.

Scale $\frac{1}{4}$ inch to one foot.

Engineer-Manager

[Diagram of a pumping station with labeled parts and technical details]